Welcome - You're in the right place

Hello mums out there,

My name is Marion but call me M. I am a qualified personal trainer specialised in pre and post natal clients. Whether you are trying to conceive, are pregnant or postpartum, you have landed on the right page.

Have you ever experienced that feeling after a great workout? The calm, grounded state. The lightness in your body. That feeling isn't a rare treat - it's your natural state.

I'm here to support you in returning to it—consistently and with confidence.

You, mumma, deserve to rediscover and connect with this new version of yourself... with just a little guidance along the way.

Love,
M

Pregnancy training

Pregnancy changes everything — your body, strength, and how you feel in your skin. Some days you'll love it, others may be harder. But change is good — and it's something to celebrate. Your body is incredible. It grows, carries, and births your baby — and it deserves your care and gratitude. Movement is one of the best ways to say thank you.

And this is where I come! I am here to help you stay strong, energised, and feel supported through every stage.

This time goes fast — and the work you do now will support you through the rest of your pregnancy, labour, and recovery.

Postnatal training

Whether you gave birth yesterday or ten years ago — it doesn't matter. Your body has changed, and that change holds power.

If you're unsure how to regain your strength, reconnect with your body, or feel more like yourself again, you're not alone. After months of physical and emotional transformation - adding sleep deprivation to it - it's completely normal to feel a bit lost.

But here's a good news: MOVEMENT is a powerful tool for healing — and with the support of a dedicated postnatal trainer, you can gently and safely ease back into your new rhythm. I will help you carve out essential me-time. Let's rebuild energy, confidence, and strength together.

About me

I qualified as a pre and post natal personal trainer in 2025. After having my first child, my view of fitness completely shifted. Even though I knew how to exercise pre birth, this time I felt my body was different and I was not sure how to train and what to do anymore. That's what led me to get certified and start helping other women through safe movement.

My approach is real, relatable and built from experience.

And with 15 years of ballet training, expect a strong focus on stretching, posture and body awareness - all critical during pregnancy and when caring for little ones.

I truly believe in self-care and I think our own experiences should be shared so we can grow as mums together.

In a nutshell, you will not train with a woman who never misses a gym session, sleeps through the night consistently and counts grains of rice on her plate...
I am a real mum, just like you.
